

My name is _____

Many animals live together in groups. How many different words can you find that mean animals living together in groups?

Write the name of the animal too.

Here is an example to get you started.

A Pride of lions.

Now you can look for ones which go with the animals in the Wild animal park.

Do some animals like to live alone?

Which ones are they?

Why do you think this is?